

1. Counsel has only recently been appointed for the Defendant.
2. The Government's policy, which is well known to the Court through proceedings in previous cases involving numerous defendants, provides a sentencing incentive to encourage early pleas of guilty in cases brought pursuant to 8 U.S.C. § 1326.
3. The savings in time by expediting the proceedings in appropriate cases serves the public interest by reducing the costs of detention, prosecution and defense as well as in bringing such charges to a prompt resolution.

1 4. The avoidance of grand jury proceedings with the voluntary consent of a defendant,
2 when appropriate, reduces the number of proceedings required to bring a criminal matter to a
3 prompt resolution.

4 5. An early decision by a defendant to reach a plea agreement with the Government
5 often avoids the need to present the matter to a grand jury.

6 6. In order to allow the Defendant's attorney an opportunity to investigate possible
7 defenses to a charge in a criminal complaint and to adequately counsel the Defendant, additional
8 time is often needed for the filing of an indictment or information beyond the thirty (30) day
9 period provided in the Speedy Trial Act. The Government's standard offer requires the 10 Defendant to waive his right to grand jury proceedings and agree to proceed by the filing of an 11 information. If the Defendant does not agree to this procedure within the time allowed by 12 statute, the Government would withdraw the plea offer.

13 7. Disposition of immigration cases through the pre-indictment plea offer results in an 14 expeditious resolution of the case. Granting a thirty (30) day continuance allows defense
15 counsel time to assure that the plea offer is in the Defendant's best interest.

16 The Court therefore concludes that the ends of justice are best served by granting an 17 extension of time to present the case to the grand jury and in excluding a period of thirty (30)
18 days under the Speedy Trial Act. In making this determination, the Court has particularly taken 19 into account that the failure to grant the Defendant's request "would deny counsel for the 20 defendant. . .the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the 21 exercise of due diligence." 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(8)(B)(iv).

22 IT IS ORDERED granting Defendant's Motion to Extend Time to Indict (Doc. #3).

23 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that excludable time shall begin to run on the 31st day
24 after arrest for a period of thirty (30) days in which the Government may present the case to the 25 grand jury.

26 DATED this 27th day of March, 2008.

David K. Duncan
United States Magistrate Judge